

Noting you under the sun

I Am noting you under the sun
– under a fig tree ere your brother Phillip comes.
It is something New under the sun.
New are the big news that your brother Phillip runs.

Why are nodding you under the sun,
saying a prophet from Nazareth would be new,
for the News have come under the sun:
God gives the new hope as He waters earth with dew.

He is something new,
In Him the Holy Covenant renews.

I Am tells you the moment you come.
Before your brother came He set His eyes on you.
This is some big news striking a home.
Now you give reverence to one whom it is due.

You start noting Him under the sun.
His is the fig tree, and your brother Phillip too.
Your becoming new under the sun.
You be with I Am when the tides of time be through.

He is something new,
In Him the holy Covenant renews.
